

Cade Gall

(312) 774-9204 | CadeTheStampede@gmail.com

Writer & Editor

Early-Career writer and editor seeking out entry level job positions in editorial, digital content, publishing, or communications. Strong written and verbal communication skills with experience working collaboratively, communicating with the public and handling responsibilities accurately in fast-paced environments. Interested in creating original content as well as reviewing and improving the works of others.

Core Skills

Writing and Written communications, Editing and Proofreading, Microsoft Office Suite, 78 WPM typing, Verbal communications, Collaboration, Customer Communication, Organization and attention to detail

Education

Harold Washington College ---- Chicago, IL
Associate in Arts
September 2023- May 6th 2026

Work Experience

ART Youth Artist Program – CPS After School Matters Summer Internship

2017–2017

- Collaborated with students and instructors to develop and present a live performance
- Participated in multiple aspects of production, including set construction, lighting, music, and program design.
- Worked as part of a creative team to move a project from planning to final presentation.

Aurora Advocate Health Volunteer

2021–2023

- Assisted patients and visitors navigate their way through the hospital and locating appointments and services
- Communicated clearly with patients, visitors, and hospital staff in a busy healthcare environment
- Assisted patients using wheelchairs and accompanied individuals to appointments when needed.

Levy Restaurants Wrigley Field Concessions Cashier

2022--2022

- Managed High-volume customer interactions while accurately processing and communicating orders.
- Helped coworkers learn new ordering technology introduced to improve service efficiency
- Responding to customer needs quickly while maintaining accuracy during peak periods.

Levy Restaurants United Center Concessions worker

2022--2023

- Worked accurately and efficiently in a fast-paced environment serving large numbers of customers.
- Coordinated with team members to keep work areas organized, sanitary, and prepared for service.
- Balanced speed, accuracy, and attention to details during high-volume events.

Independent Gaming Writer - Cade's Writing Blog

2026-present

- Write and publish original articles examining videogames, tabletopgames, game mechanics, and gaming culture.
- Develop Articles from initial concept through drafting, revision, and publication.
- Explain game systems, mechanics, and narrative concepts for readers with varying levels of familiarity.
- Combine Personal perspective, critical commentary, and informational writing to create accessible long-form content.